

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to you because I love the United States of America. I truly believe that it is the greatest nation on the face of the earth. I also believe that its greatness can be traced directly to our belief and acknowledgement that it is God that has blessed us by keeping His hand of mercy upon us.

As you begin your first term as President, I would like to humbly remind you of several basic principles of leadership found in the Word of God. While it is true that you are the most powerful leader of the most powerful nation on the face of the earth, it is God that is the ultimate ruler of heaven and earth. He still reigns!

You must also acknowledge that you are serving in this position as President because God has placed you in that position. Simply put, God gave His permission for you to serve as President.

While it is true that you are accountable to me and all other American citizens, we are not your ultimate source of accountability.

While it is true that you are accountable to the Congress and the Senate, one day you will answer to a much greater authority, the Most High God of heaven and earth.

As it was with the great King of the Old Testament, Nebuchadnezzar, so it will be with your leadership. If you acknowledge these basic principles, God will bless you and our great nation beyond our imagination. Ignore them, and we will sink deeper and deeper into hopelessness and despair.

The choices are simple. I implore you to put aside what may be politically correct and fall on your face before a sovereign and supreme God and acknowledge Him.

May God bless us and bless the United States of America.

Sincerely,

Concerned Christian citizens of the United States.
